June 11 2026

On June 11, there will be learning outside the educational centre or learning about this important place for the people of Palembang. The first place will be sentra songket to learn how to make sentra songket. Next will be Museum solta Mahmud Badarudin II. It is a museum that tells about the past history of Indonesia. The last place is to learn how to do Pempek. It is a local food of the Palembang people.

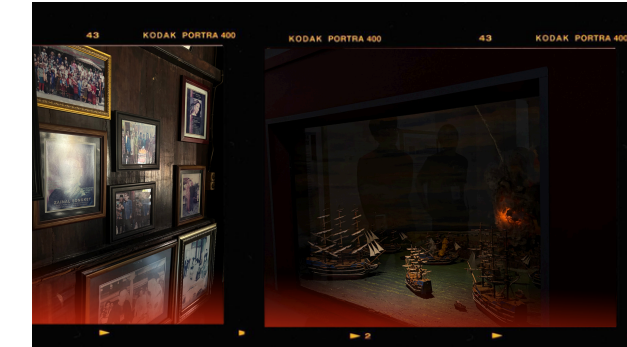

Songket fabric (Songket) has its roots in weaving in the Srivichai Kingdom during the 7th-14th century, which is a common culture of Malaysia, Indonesia and Brunei. The word Songket comes from the Malay word "Sungkit", which means gold and silver yarn. This type of woven fabric is called "Queen of Fabrics" (Queen of Fabrics) that represents the status of wealth of kings and elites in the past.

Museum sultan Mahmud Badarudin II
Located along the Musi River in Palembang, Indonesia, this building was built in the 19th century on the original land of the old palace to commemorate the name and honour of Sultan Mahmud Badaruddin II, who led the fight against Europeans in the past.

Learn tp make pempek

Pempek is a famous local dish from Palembang, South Sumatra, Indonesia. It is made from finely minced fish meat blended with tapioca starch, steamed or boiled until cooked, and then deep-fried until crisp on the outside and soft on the inside. It is served with Cuko, a sweet, sour, and mildly spicy sauce made from tamarind, palm sugar, garlic, and chili peppers.
