SUT AND UNIBZ EXPLORE NEW AVENUES FOR ACADEMIC COLLABORATION

On October 27, 2025, Suranaree University of Technology (SUT) welcomed Prof. Dr. Oswin Maurer from the Free University of Bozen-Bolzano (UNIBZ), Italy, under the framework of the ASEA-UNINET network. Hosted by the Center for International Affairs (CIA), the visit focused on exploring collaboration in entrepreneurship, innovation, environmental sustainability, agriculture, ecotourism, and digital technology.

In the morning, Prof. Maurer visited the Student Entrepreneurship Development Academy (SEDA) and met with Dr. Mullika Sungsanit, Head of the Center of Excellence for Entrepreneurship and ASEA-UNINET President, to discuss potential cooperation and future initiatives. In the afternoon, the program continued with meetings at Technopolis and the Institute of Agricultural Technology to further explore opportunities for academic and research collaboration between SUT and UNIBZ.
