Celebrating Unity Through Sports and Friendship

was the theme of the SUT Intercup 2025, a one-day event that brought Thai and international students together in a celebration of sports, teamwork, and cultural exchange. The Intercup was not only about competition, but also about building friendships, learning from one another, and strengthening the bonds within the SUT community.

The opening ceremony led by Asst. Prof. Dr. Tapany Patcharawit, Deputy Director of the Center for International Affairs, the remarks, reminded everyone that "the Intercup is more than just winning or losing, it is about working together, showing respect, and enjoying the connections made through sports." The message encouraged students to play with spirit, fairness, and pride in representing their teams.

Students competed in four main sports: Basketball, Volleyball, Futsal, and Badminton, with categories for men's singles, women's singles, and mixed doubles. Every match was full of energy and excitement, with teams giving their best effort and classmates cheering loudly from the sidelines. Even though the games were competitive, the atmosphere remained friendly and supportive, showing the true spirit of unity and sportsmanship.

The results were announced: Team Nero finished in fourth place (4th), Team Gaia earned third place (3rd), and Team Pyros secured second place (2nd). The overall champions of the SUT Intercup 2025 were Team Aero (1st), who showed strong teamwork, determination, and skill throughout the games. Aero took home the title, all teams walked away with new friendships, stronger bonds, and memories that will last long after the event.

The SUT Intercup 2025 proved that even in just one day, sports have the power to unite people from different cultures and backgrounds. With the dedication of the players, the support of the audience, and the hard work of the organizers, the event was a great success.

The theme "One Team, One Spirit" truly came alive, making the Intercup not only a competition but also a celebration of unity, diversity, and togetherness at Suranaree University of Technology.
