 English Day Out 2025: Bridging Hearts and Languages at Ban Nong Ranga School

The Center for International Affairs, Suranaree University of Technology (SUT) hosted a heartwarming activity, “English Day Out 2025” at Ban Nong Ranga School, Nakhon Ratchasima on Saturday 6th September 2025.

The event gathered international students from diverse countries alongside Thai students who came together with one shared mission: to teach English and spread joy to local schoolchildren. Through interactive lessons, fun activities, and lively games, the children not only learned new English words but also built confidence in using the language in a playful and friendly environment. More than just a classroom experience, the day was filled with laughter, cultural exchange, and friendship.

The young learners at Ban Nong Ranga School embraced the chance to interact with university Thai and International students, while the SUT participants gained unforgettable memories by sharing their cultures and kindness with the local community the activity beautifully demonstrated how education, joy, and cross-cultural understanding can come together to create lasting bonds.

The English Day Out 2025 reflected SUT’s commitment to nurturing not only academic excellence but also community engagement and global citizenship proving that learning can be as joyful as it is transformative.
