International Chinese Language Education Seminar

2023 China-ASEAN Education Cooperation Week International Chinese Language Education Seminar, is hosted by the Chinese and Foreign Language Exchange and Cooperation Center of the Ministry of Education, Guizhou Provincial Department of Education, and Guizhou University (GZU), to promote exchanges between peoples of the world. More than 80 foreign guests from 9 countries attended the meeting, including Spain, Thailand, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Pakistan, Laos, Cambodia, and the United States, as well as education administrative units, leaders of well-known universities in Guizhou, experts, and scholars. The meeting focused on the following aspects: 1) more support for local Chinese teacher training; 2) Chinese + vocational skills training; 3) increase cooperation in digital and online distance education; 4) strengthen exchanges among young students; and 5) develop comprehensive and solid language exchange plans.

Prof. Dr. Hong Yun, the Director Office of International Relations GZU also gave us a warm welcome at the main meeting site.

China-ASEAN Education Cooperative Week (CAECW) in the theme of New Vision of Educational Cooperation, Common Prosperity of the 'Belt and Road' was opened in Gui'an, New Area of southwest China's Guizhou province during 28 August to 2 September 2023. The grand opening ceremony was honored by privileged representatives from the Ministry of Education from ASEAN countries and witnessed by hundreds of delegates and guests. China-ASEAN collaboration strongly leads to greater talent and innovative support for the Belt and Road Initiative through development in high-quality education, aiming for enhanced practical cooperation in economy, trade, culture, and tourism, and most importantly to level up the well-being of the people in ASEAN countries.

Meeting with Prof. Ning Mei, Dean of College of International Education and Communist Party Secretary, Guizhou University

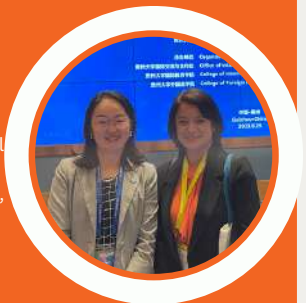

On this occasion, to strengthen the long relationship between GZU-SUT, Asst. Prof. Tapany Patcharawit, Deputy Director of Center for International Affairs and Miss Wachira Keeratipianlerd, General Administrative Officer, have been invited to the College of International Education to discuss collaborations in terms of student exchange programs, other activities such as scholar visits and short programs. In addition, we look forward to welcoming GZU delegates at SUT campus on September 15, 2023.
